1. Extract of the Secretary's note forming file of relating to the grant of a second advance to Mr. R. Ramsden, asst to the Dep. Commr of C.S., for the purchase of a motor cycle in place of the one which he now has brought into the help of the first advance, the latter having become unserviceable

G-F 16-14-9 Feb

It would be well to keep to review these non-interest-bearing loans at intervals of less than two years. I am inclined to issue a ruling that such advances should not be repeated at intervals of less than 5 yrs. This point may be further considered.

	Govt. however, will not have been pleased to grant a second advance in cases where the whole amount of the 1st advance has been paid up and where the car or cycle purchased with the help of the 1st advance has become unserviceable.
Mr R Rangachari's case Flag X	(3) In the latest case on the subject of that of Mr R Rangachari referred to above, when the 2nd advance was applied for after an interval of 4 months from the granting of the 1st advance, the Govt Letter Expressed the desirability of laying down a limit of time for the application for 2nd advances. The Govt file is not available.

they ought to be granted sparingly & after scrutiny and no advance are sd for the purchase of motor cycles (Meikles Tri Manual vol I P 68) - The grant of a second advance is not specifically allowed by the rules but has been ~~allowed~~ sanctioned in a few instances. It may perhaps be ruled that a second advance will not be sd in any instance - as it is obviously undesirable that Govt should be always granting interest free loans
